

Kent County Master Gardener Spring 2022 Workshops

REPLACING INVASIVE PLANTS WITH NATIVES

Thursday, April 7, 2022
1:00 - 2:00 PM EDT
Online only via ZOOM
Kathy Doyle and Debbie Nicol
Kent County Master
Gardeners

Do you have non-native, potentially invasive plants in your landscape? Replacing them with native plants can meet your landscaping vision, bringing beauty and life to your garden. In this workshop, you will learn why native plants are a better choice than non-native plants. You will also learn about a dozen specific native replacements for popular non-natives.

ASK A MASTER GARDENER

Wednesday, May 18, 2022, 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM EDT
Online only via ZOOM
Karla Boulter, Debbie Nicol, Anita Smith, and Linda Sperry
Kent County Master Gardeners

Now's your chance to get your soil, vegetable, tree, flower, insect, and other gardening questions answered before it's too late! Please pre-submit your questions along with crisp, clear photos to kcmgworkshops@gmail.com by May 13th to be included in the slide show, or ask your questions live at the ZOOM session. Our Master Gardener presenters will do their best to get you the help you need.

I KILLED IT!

Monday, June 20, 2022
10:00 AM - 11:00 AM EDT
Online only via ZOOM
Karen Abate
Kent County Master Gardener

Prior to becoming a Master Gardener, Karen Abate became an expert at killing her plants. In this presentation, she will discuss the more common ways to destroy all kinds of plants including house plants, vegetable plants, perennials, annuals, and herbs. It is hoped that by learning from her mistakes, you will have greater gardening success.
